

The helpful staff from Book World España arrived with their boxes brimming with books.

Colourful displays of fiction and non-fiction books from picture books to classic novels were set up in the front entrance so when parents and visitors entered the building in the morning, they were instantly drawn to explore what was on offer.

Throughout the day, classes took turns to visit the book fair. Some pupils had money to spend and were assisted by the team from Book World España. Some classes gathered in the reading corners or on the sofas to listen to a story read by their teachers.

